" There is a tide in the affairs of men,
Which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune."
Julius Caesar IV, 3, 218

Floating on the tide to find their fortune was the goal of the 1961 Seniors. One year, signifying the end of a long journey, was a temporal pause before they started on the longest and most exciting pilgrimage. A full year, rich with memories in which the Seniors lived each moment separately, anxiously wanting the time to pass and yet, reluctant to surrender the special memories to the sea of life.

Graduating Seniors (l-r): David Ellerman; Leann Johnson; Janet Wells; Butch Ray
Fred Mistele; Letitia Wells; Peter Hobiger; Pamela League
Madelyn Terrell; Frank Scarpace; Stephanie Vaughn; Joachim Auer
Joseph Fernan; Elda Herring; Patricia Rainford; Charles Gafford
Jantha Adams; Patricia Filaseta; Patricia Spenoer; Rebecca Winston
